

SUNBELT®
Logistics Group

Case Study # 4

Fruit and vegetable producers from around the world utilize the specialized services that Sunbelt Logistics provides.

These producers have growing facilities in places such as The Netherlands, Israel, Mexico, New Zealand, Asia and Costa Rica, to name a few, and market their products to many countries around the world including Canada and the United States.

For these clients, Sunbelt Logistics manages the entire supply chain once the products reach the shores of North America, either by air or ocean; from customs clearance, to warehousing and distribution with CFIA Import Licenses obtained for each commodity, in order to facilitate each client's requirements.

These shipments are destined for the large grocery retailers in North America.

The goal of these producers is to bring the freshest products from the fields to the customers using the optimum route.

Our clients have collectively agreed that Sunbelt Logistics has "their priorities right; Sunbelt Logistics has proven year over year to be the right company with reliable professional service day in day out".
